A tribute from Building Journal to mark the 20th Anniversary of Hong Kong International Airport

In this issue, Building Journal recalls a special review, which was published in 1996, on the construction of the Hong Kong International Airport at Chek Lap Kok. The selected editorial pages are scanned images of the original hard copy since the digital files are no more available.

8 HONG KONG'S NEW AIRPORT AT CHEK LAP KOK

By way of introduction, we investigate what prompted Hong Kong to build a new airport, why the Chek Lap Kok site was chosen and how the Airport Core Programme was conceived.

28 FLYING HIGH
Alistair Thomson, head of construction for the Airport Authority, relates how many of the difficulties intrinsic to such a vast project have been overcome.

36 SUCCESSFUL STRATEGIST
An overview of the operations of NAPCO, the project coordinating office for the new airport and the core projects.

44 CHARTING NEW TERRITORY
Thomas Ho, the property director of the MTRC, talks about his company's extensive property development programme along the new Airport Railway.

110 THE CHEK LAP KOK EXPERIENCE
Ludwig Reichhold, general manager of top contractor Dünweg at Transair Publics, on his involvement with various airport projects and the complexities of working at Chek Lap Kok.
